Please, explain your motivation to become CDN Executive Committee member:

My interaction with CDN and the wonderful people I've met during the last few years was crucial part of my development as a better living being and a green activist. I didn't only gain invaluable skills and experience but also kept my motivation high to fight for a green future. That's why I want to enable and encourage others from Eastern Europe to contribute to the green future we aim to build. I believe becoming an Executive Committee member is integral for me to achieve this and finally pay back to these extraordinary young people.

Please, shortly present your previous CDN experience:

I've got the chance to both represent my organization and be part of different projects and working groups. I attended last four General Assemblies and various of CDN activities as participants, delegates and member of the prep team over the years.

Being a member of the Executive Committee is a very demanding task that requires inter-cultural competences, working under pressure, deadlines, in non-familiar environment, dedication to the goals, and this being online work. Please explain briefly your ability to respond to these challenges and requirements:

I organized and participated various different international events and projects both abroad and in Turkey in the past. Especially my experience with CDN and FYEG in the past helped me familiarize the work atmosphere that will help me overcome these challenges. As for my professional work I've been moving on to having my own legal consultancy hopefully near future so I could easily manage my responsibilities towards CDN.

What would you like to be responsible for in CDN during this mandate? What are your competences?

I would like to be responsible for MO-PO relationships and represent CDN during its networking activities. I am also interested in human rights and the work of the digital x working group.

I am more than capable with writing policy papers or strategic documents. I could help CDN update their positions on different issues we face in recent years.

Is there anything you would like to improve, implement or set for the future during your mandate?

I've been discussing for a while about we should talk more about economics in CDN's work. So I want to approach different interested MOs and WGs to learn more about implementation of green economic visions in EE.

I think CDN done amazing work regards to linking different topics together and reflecting how green issues are intertwined with each other. Another point that I could see an improvement could be made is also showing how these intersectional social problems could tied into systemic causes that we embraced involuntarily over our lives. I know when we are writing projects it is hard to reflect on this point however at least in implementation we could underline it more than before.
